Intensive Care Society
Bursaries

The Society offers a limited number of bursaries to allow UK medical students / students in full time education the opportunity to attend the Intensive Care Society's State of the Art Meeting. Bursary allowances are as indicated below under 'Conditions.'

Application Process:

- Applications for a bursary to attend the State of the Art Meeting must be sent in writing to the Honorary Treasurer of the ICS. You should indicate whether you wish to attend only one day or the full meeting.
- You should explain why you wish to attend the meeting and what you expect to gain from attending.
- You will need to submit a letter on official letterhead from your educational institution, confirming that you are a student in full time education.
- The ICS Meetings Committee will consider your request and if you are successful you will be notified in writing and sent a registration form for the meeting.
- You must return the registration form and proof of being in full time education within 10 days or your bursary may be cancelled and offered to someone else.

Conditions:

- Applicants must apply for ICS membership (£25.00 in the first year). Further information and an application form can be found under the "Membership" heading on the ICS website.
- Preference will be given to students who presenting an abstract at the meeting
- Bursaries will only cover the registration fee of the State of the Art Meeting and will not cover travel, social aspects of events, or any other expenses incurred
- Individuals requesting a bursary after the funding budget has been allocated will be advised accordingly
- Bursaries will be limited to one application per individual per year.

Where to apply:
